Prominent Local Business Man Expires Suddenly

Death came suddenly and unexpectedly to one of Schulenburg's oldest and most prominent merchants, Ike Lippman, on Friday, May 4, at 11:00 p. m. as the result of a heart attack.

Mr. Lippman, age 64 years, was born in Grodek Powiat--Wilenski, Poland, on April 23, 1887, as the son of Henech and Rifka Lippman. When he was eighteen he came to America with his uncle, settling in New York. He then came to San Antonio and from there, he came to Schulenburg with a friend, Dave Shapiro, and it was here in 1912, that Mr. Lippman set up in the dry goods business. He and his partner had their store on Lyons Avenue where E. K. Deterling and son are now established. On April 12, of this year Mr. Lippman celebrated his 39th anniversary in business in this city.

On June 12, 1914, he was united in marriage to Selma Levey in Houston, and this union was blessed with one child, a son. His wife's father, M. C. Levey, was the first mayor of Schulenburg. Mrs. Lippman died on February 11, 1936.

He was well known to many people in this area for they were his friends. He spoke to all whom he met on the streets or went by

(Continued on page 3, Col 7)

City Plans To