DAY, FEB. 14th., 1936. NO.

SUDDEN DEATH OF MRS. IKE LIPPMAN BRINGS GRIEF TO ENTIRE COMMUNITY

The entire populace af Schulenburg was deeply saddened by the sudden and unexpected news of the death of Mrs. Ike Lippman, one of our leading citizens, at the St. Joseph's Infirmary in Houston on Monday morning, February 10. Mrs. Lippman had been in ill health for several months and on Friday when her condition appeared critical, was removed to the St. Joseph's Hospital, where medical attention was given. Although she seemed somewhat improved Friday evening, complications set in and pneumonia developed early Monday morning. Gradually her strength left her and at 10:45 o'clock Monday morning she passed into the Great Beyond. Her only son, Leslie, who was summoned to her bedside Sunday, remained with her until her death.

Mrs. Lippman, aged 56 years, was a member of one of the leading families of Schulenburg (nee Miss Selma Levey) was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Levey. Her father, who at one time was mayor on our city, was a prominent merchant and business man. She spent her life in our community and received her education in local institutes of learning. In September 1912 she was united in marriage to Ike Lippman. Deceased was an honored member of the Eastern Star Lodge.

Deceased was a woman of remarkable character and commendable traits. From childhood her sole efforts were devoted to the welfare of those around her. She was largely instrumental and responsible in helping her husband expand his store into one of the leading business establishments of our city today. Mrs. Lippman was an intellectual asset to those in whose company she happened to be. Her vibrant personality reflected an atmosphere of contentment and unexpressable sweetness felt mainly by those whom she nutured and cared for. As a wife and mother she was the essence of devotedness and loyalty. Her character, noble in all respects, cast rays of vivid sunshine dispelling any prevalent gloom in its midst.

Her wholesome influence upon society, her model life, her tenderness to the poor and unfortunate and her devotedness as a wife and mother were incentives to all who enjoyed her company. To those who survive and mourn belatedly her untimely passing. let us say: Be comforted and grieve not, for her noble duty in life was fulfilled to the greatest measure.

Funeral services were held Tue[sday] afternoon at 3 o'clock fr[om] residence and in[ter-]