

Chamber Gives Lippman's Plaque For Being In Business 75 Years

On Apr. 11, members and directors of the Schulenburg Chamber of Commerce presented the owners of Ike Lippman & Son Dry Goods Store a plaque celebrating three-quarters of a century of business in Schulenburg. The store has been continuously family-operated since opening on Apr. 12, 1912. At the presentation were (from left) Doris Sartain, Eugenia Reeves, Leslie Lippman, Sarah Lippman, Ona Marak, Lloyd Schwenke, Tristian Schwenke, and Phil Leaman.

Members of the Lippman family celebrating the 75th anniversary of Ike Lippman & Son Dry Goods Store on Apr. 11 were (from left) Jenny Lippman, Allisson Lippman, Phil Lippman, owner Sarah Lippman, Sheldon Lippman, owner Leslie Lippman, Marilyn Lippman and Irvin Lippman.

Sticker Staff Photos